About the Club:
The Beaconsfield Junior Netball Club (BJNC) is associated with the Beaconsfield Netball Club (BNC). The Beaconsfield Netball Club was first established in 1953 and competed in the local Football-Netball League. There was such high demand to play netball, with a limited number of teams that could be entered into the League, and so the Beaconsfield Junior Netball Club was born. This newly established Club allowed for a larger number of young girls to participate in our great sport.
Today, BNC participates in the Southeast Precinct Netball League (SEPNL) and BJNC participates in Casey Netball Association (Monday and Wednesday nights) and Waverley Night Netball Association (Saturdays).
